

FLOWER GUILD

The Flower Guild continues to operate in the black with all costs for operating supplies, dedications and special events (Mother's Day, etc.) being financed by donations from parishioners and the generosity of the team members. An agreement was made this year to work more closely with the Altar Guild, and to supplement their income with surplus from dedication donations.